MINISTER COREA HONORED. During his absence in Nicaragua Mr. forea has received notable honors from his Government, being made minister to Mexico in addition to his position as minister to the United States. He recently visited Mexico City and presented his credentials to President Diaz and had the distinction of concluding the treaty heretofore referred to, establishing the first treaty relations ever existing between Mexico and Nicaragua. It is a coincidence that each time Mr. Corea has returned to Managua he has received a marked advance, first from secretary of legation to charge d'affaires, next from charge to minister, and now from minister here to minister to both Mexico and the United States.

Gossip About Wilhelmina, Kaiser Wilhelm, Francis Joseph, the Czar and Others.

(Special Correspondence.)

LONDON, Nov. 10.-The religion of the head of a state or nation is usually the predominant belief of the nation itself. In the religions of the world's rulers today, many different creeds are represented. With rare exceptions, the heads of nations are punctiliuos in fulfillment of their reigious duties, thus setting a good example to their subjects.

Queen Victoria, as devout a Christian as the humblest member of the Church of England, is a great lover of hymns. Her favorites used to be "Nearer, My God, to Thee," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and "How Sweet the Name of Jesus Sounds." Of late years her choice has become confined almost entirely to hymns relating to the future state and breathing the spirit of resignation. At service, she has frequently asked that the choir

> QUEEN WILHELMINA A PROTEST. ANT.

The husband of Queen Wilhelmina, of Holland, will surely be a Protestant, for she herself is the best and most regular worshiper in the Dutch church. Moreover the law of her land will not permit her to marry a Catholic. She studied the Bible under a special professor, and many anecdotes are related of the questions by which she sought enlightenment.

King Christian, of Denmark, though personally inclined to the Lutheran church, holds most liberal religious views regarding his people and members of his family. King Oscar II, of Sweden, is of the Protestant faith, a practical Christian, and an ardent student of the Bible.
